

Dutch 4 V 4 Soccer Festival

Players will play a series of "4 v 4" mini soccer games in a tournament format that pits every boy and girl for themselves -- but on teams! How can that be you might ask? Players will be assigned different teams by random draw before each match, so that they play with every possible combination of different teammates we can mathematically fit into one session of soccer. Each win a team you are playing on earns, and every goal a team you are playing on earns, are points towards your individual points. At the end of the session one individual will be crowned Dutch 4 v 4 CHAMPION!
